

Alice Dixon was born in Toronto, Canada. She holds a degree in Photographic Studies from Ryerson University. Dixon has been exhibiting and curating for over ten years. Her experience extends internationally having lived and worked in Paris, France. Dixon is currently the Exhibition Coordinator at Gallery 44 Centre for Contemporary Photography in Toronto. She also maintains an independent practice as an artist, curator, and writer.